

IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY

ORDINARY ORIGINAL CIVIL JURISDICTION

ARBITRATION PETITION (LODG) NO.562 OF 2005

Trent Limited.

...Petitioners.

vs.

Amazon Developers & others.

...Respondents.

Mr.F.D'Vitre with C.S.Balsara i/b. Maneksha & Sethna, for Petitioners.

Mr.Sham Mehta i/b. Kartikeya & Another, for Respondent nos.1 & 2.

Mr.Janak Dwarkadas with Rahul Chitnis i/b. Wadia Gandhi & Co. for Respondent nos.3 to 11.

CORAM: D.K.DESHMUKH,J.

DATED: 26th October, 2005

P.C.:-

1. There is already an interim order made protecting interest of the petitioners. According to the petitioners, the petitioners have also filed contempt petition alleging that the interim order has been breached. In view of the pendency of the Contempt Petition and as it is the case of the petitioners that the interim order made by the Court protects all its rights, in my opinion, it will not be appropriate to grant any interim order in this petition. The petition is disposed of.
